

2010

PILOT INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON GLOBAL SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

Conference Theme: "Climate Change, A Challenge to Businesses in the 21st Century"

Why you should attend

6 reasons to attend

- Show case your services/good and benefit from first class leading industry networking opportunities during and after the event.
- Speak and participate in a series of interactive panel discussions
- Listen to experts share latest information, approaches & technologies on business growth and climate change reduction.
- Identify investment opportunities in the region and all over the globe.
- Hear case studies from across the globe on sustainable development business and or projects and how they mitigate climate change.
- Gain an indepth understanding of global sustainable development, how climate change is a challenge to to humanity and businesses in the 21st Century plus what needs to be done to over come challenges.

Who should attend?

Everyone in Development-business community, industrialists, Companies in Energy, oil and gas, Government agencies, investors, Media, Private sector, Donor Community, Non-Profit Organization, Civil Societies, Academicians, Students, Community Based Organization, Informal Sectors etc.

100+ WORLD CLASS
SPEAKERS TO SPEAK:

Register before 15th May 2010 and save $100.

Book Now: Call +256772508970 / +256701508970.

Email: Info@pilotinternationalconferences.org or register online:
www.pilotinternationalconferences.org

Al Gore

Hermman Sheer
MP Germany

Lord Browne
Former CEO BP

Sir Bob Geldof

Gro Harlem Brundtland
Chair Sustainable Development
Commission & UN Envoy

Submit a 200 word abstract for a business presentation, full paper or poster to: Communication@pilotinternationalconferences.org before 30th May 2010 under the following sub-themes:

- The road from Copenhagen and Interantional policy outcomes and their impact on development economies.
- The immediate market opportunities, locally, regionally and globally, in sustaining economic growth and mitigating climate change.
- The impact of climate change on different development sectors and infrastructure such as tourism, aviation, health, agriculture, education etc.
- Global Sustainable Development policies, patcices and projects.

All conference participants must register and pay for registration fees in order to participate. Registration fees are paid in dollars or its equivalent in Uganda Shillings

Registration type	Early Bird Registration($ before 15th may 2010)	Late Registration($) from 15th May to 1st November 2010)
Speakers and participants	200	300
*Exhibitors	400	500
Students	100	200

Registration fees include entrance fees to conference and exhibitions, a conference proceedings book of published papers, posters, and exhibitors, 2 break teas/ coffees, soft drinks and lunch taken at the conference venue.
*Maximum number of people allowed for each exhibiting organization/ company is 2

Get Involved: Sponsor, Exhibit, Speak, Chair a session, Partner, Collaborate, Partcipate & Volunteer

Nov 19-21 2010; Commonwealth Resort Hotel Munyonyo, Kampala-Uganda

For Hotel reservation Contact: Mr. Prabhat Mishire +256 772 777790-Group General Marketing Manager; Mr. Chris Mwaniki +256 782 626252 Marketing Manager; Email addresses-reservations@spekeresort.com; spekeresort@spekeresort.com; spekehotel@spekehotel.com